Good Speeches.

Clay City had a lovely treat last Friday night by having two of the best speeches of the campaign delivered respectfully by the Hons. J. M. McDaniel a leading attorney of Beattyville and Commonwealth's Attorney B. A. Crutcher. Long before the hour of speaking the house was packed ready to receive the speakers. Had it not have been for the heavy rain the house would not have furnished the crowd standing room.

The speeches were fine, full of force, eloquence, and telling effect. They were well received and the only regrets manifested were that each speaker could not have a full night all to himself.

Robt R. Friend, nominee for the Tenth Congressional district Presidential Elector has made a complete tour of the district. He has spoken in every county and made a great impression upon his hearers. He will wind up the campaign in a speech at Stanton Saturday, Oct. 31st at 1 p. m.

The colored folks had a speaking at their lodge room Tuesday night by — Mathews a colored man. About two-thirds of the crowd were white. The same night the white Democrats had a big barbecue which was attended by a number of colored voters most of whom will vote the Democratic ticket. Bryan will get the largest colored vote of any Democratic candidate for President, and it seems that Clay City will furnish her part.

Mr. Bee Bowman will address the Democratic Club Friday night. He urges his friends to come out and "let's reason together." Mr. Bowman is not a regular public speaker but greatly desires that all may know the truth as he sees it. Elder Albert Easter will also address the club, and Robt R. Friend, our Presidential Elector is also expected to be with us and favor the Club with one of his able addresses. Come out.

The inheritance tax law passed by the Kentucky Legislature in 1906 is held constitutional by the Court of Appeals. Good thing this law was not up to the Federal Court to pass upon, they would knock it out quicker than such a law could be enacted, like they did the income tax law passed during the Cleveland administration.

The town of Beattyville has been sued in the Lee Circuit Court by John W. Duncan, for $20,000 damages. Duncan is one of the Madison county jurors summoned to Beattyville last November to try B. F. French, and fell over the railing of a bridge into the creek while in the city.

The Kentucky Valley Medical Association is in session in this city. About twenty doctors are in attendance and are having a royal good time. They are holding their session in the Presbyterian church. We extend them a hearty welcome and hope to have them with us oftener.

The school fund in Powell county should be materially increased by the dog tax which provides that any dog-tax surplus remaining to the credit of any county shall be transferred to the credit of the school fund of such county. The dog-tax belonging to any county will be added to its share of the common school fund for such county and will be apportioned each district. The dog-tax, will increase the per capita for this county.

The Democrats at the National headquarters at Chicago grow more optimistic as the election day draws near. Bryan continues to gain heavily in every State. Even Iowa is now considered in the doubtful list. Ohio and Indiana are now beyond purchase and New York reports say Bryan will carry the Empire State.

Elder Ball, an evangelist from Lee county, closed a ten days meeting with the Vaughn's Mill Christian church Sunday, and preached at the Christian church in this city Sunday night. Eld. M. P. Lowry preached at the church here Saturday night and Sunday morning.

In a letter from Joe Vaughn at Kansas City, Mo., he says that the grand old state will roll up a majority of no less than 40,000.

Mrs. Parish, of Winchester, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robt N. Bush.

Cure for Republicanism.

Take 12 ounces of the principles of equal rights to all, one pound of dislike for the trusts, 8 ounces of the powder of political purity a handful of hatred for high tariff, a spoonful of julap juice of Jeffersonian principles and a large sprig of the present panic.

Set these over the wild fire of Republican wrongs, sweeten with the sugar of special privileges to none.

Put it into the empty cavity above your adam's apple, cork it up with the cork of common sense, and let it remain forever.

This done you will find instant relief, and will never no more be called the moss-back radical that you are.—The Hornet

Don't fail to hear Robert R. Friend at the Stanton Courthouse Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Vote early, and vote but once that is enough.

We wouldn't have a Democrat vote illegally if he could. See about the other side too.

Democrats do your duty next Tuesday and Amos Davis will go to Congress.

Keep ever in mind: "I'd rather be right than President," then go ahead, and when we get there let's hold.

The corruption fund has been their surestholt, now then to count us out. Let's make it so big they won't try it.

Owing to some private business matters we are one day late this week, but for this reason we are none the less enthusiastic over the election of Bryan, Kern and Davis next Tuesday.

Lost, from rig of J. B. Eaton's some where between Pilot Knob and Clay City, Oct. 13, a lap robe. Owner return to Dr. Smith at Clay City and receive reward.
